

CONGRESSIONAL

WASHINGTON, Monday, July 14.
SENATE.—The Senate considered and passed several private bills.
The bill amendatory of an act to promote the efficiency of the Navy was taken up. A desultory discussion on sundry amendments followed.
At four o'clock an unsuccessful motion was made to adjourn.

Mr. Toombs obtained the floor, saying that as the Senate was anxious to discuss the question now, he would proceed to give his views at large.

Mr. Hunter.—Will the Senator yield the floor to a motion to adjourn?
Mr. Toombs.—No, Sir. The Senate just refused to adjourn. I intend to speak on the subject, and when Senators get tired hearing me they can go home. However, the reporters will keep their seats, for my speech is intended for the country as much as for the Senate.

After I have spoken for four hours, the Senator from Virginia can make his motion to adjourn, if he chooses.
Mr. Toombs proceeded to give a history of the rise and progress of the Navy, going back to the foundation of the Government. Very few Senators were in their seats, and there was much conversation in audible tones. The Chair several times called to order—when Mr. Toombs said: "I am not talking to the Senate; I am talking to the country. I am glad to hear the Senate discussing the subject; it ought to be discussed on this floor, behind the bar, and all over the country. [Applause.]

At a quarter past five Mr. Crittenden obtained the floor, by leave of Mr. Toombs, and moved that the Senate adjourn. Agreed, by two yeas and one nay.

HOUSE.—Mr. Clingman asked that the resolution of the Senate fixing a day for adjournment be considered.
Mr. Dunn said he should object till the Kansas question was settled.

Mr. Houston.—Fix your own day.

Mr. Lecher preferred that the House should go on with the trial of one of its members.

Mr. Clingman moved to suspend rules for the purpose of taking up resolution. Lost—Yeas 101; nays 91—two-thirds being requisite.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, asked that the further consideration of the report of the Committee on the Summer Session might be postponed until Wednesday, for the reason that the majority of the committee have had developed to them some facts affecting one of the parties implicated, and they desire to consider the propriety of offering an amendment to the pending resolution.

To this objection was made.

Mr. Mechem moved the previous question, which was agreed to.

Mr. Edmundson, by general consent, made a statement affecting himself.

Mr. Edmundson excused himself from the improper conduct for which the House proposed to censure him.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, defended the report of the committee.

The House voted on English's substitute: that the House declares its disapprobation of the assault, and deems this a fit occasion to express its disapprobation of language in debate probably offensive to individual members of Congress or to the States of the Union. Disagreed—Yeas 124.

Voted on the substitute of the minority committee for resolutions of majority, namely, that the House has no jurisdiction over the assault committed by Mr. Brooks on Mr. Sumner; and, therefore, deem it improper to express any opinion on the subject. Rejected—Yeas 66; nays 145.

Valid first on the resolution of the majority of the committee, that Preston S. Brooks be and he is forthwith expelled from the House, as a Representative of South Carolina—Yeas 121; nays 95.

Speaker.—The House has refused to agree to the resolution, there not being a two-thirds vote as required by the Constitution thereon.

Mr. Brooks, after opposition, spoke in his own defense, and concluded by informing the House that he had resigned his seat.

Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, moved that the resolution be tabled. Disagreed—Yeas 96; nays 111.

Pending the resolution the H. adjourned.

An Overwhelming Reply.

In the course of an able, and withering rebuke to the oft-repeated slanders in regard to the federalism of Mr. Buchanan, the New York Day Book says:

"Now, the truth is, Mr. Buchanan never was a federalist in the true sense of that term. A federalist was an opponent of the war of 1812; Mr. Buchanan supported the war by his own good sword. Mr. Buchanan was elected to Congress the first time in 1820, and as a supporter of Mr. Monroe's administration; yet as this administration was supported by the federalists, the Unionists, and democrats, it gives his enemies a chance to say that he was a federalist. The true way to determine what he was is to go to the record. Did he support federal or whig measures? Did he favor a strict or liberal construction of the constitution? By their fruits ye shall know them."

Now almost the first speech (and a most able one it was) which Mr. Buchanan made on the floor of Congress was in opposition to a bankruptcy law. In the speech he showed its injuriousness to the laboring classes, and its wrong in granting special privileges to the few.

"Upon other questions his record is equally democratic. Party lines were not drawn. The old federal party had forsaken its principles, and made pretensions to the 'era of good feeling,' as it was called. When, however, Mr. Monroe drew the line in his celebrated message upon internal improvements, and in the enactment of the Monroe doctrine, the goats soon separated from the sheep. The former at once became 'national republicans,' and Mr. Clay championed and disappointed joined them. Where was Mr. Buchanan all through this? Did he go off after the strange gods of the republican party, like so many pretended democrats of the present day? Not at all. He found him unwavering in his support of democratic principles from the day he entered the floor of Congress until the present, and he defied his enemies to 'prove differently.'"

Letter from Mr. Buchanan.

The following letter from Mr. Buchanan was received by the Invitation Committee of the Tammany Society, and read at the celebration on the 4th inst:

WILKESBARRE, near Lancaster, Penn., June 2, 1856.
Gentlemen: I have been honored by the receipt of your invitation, in behalf of the Tammany Society, to attend the celebration of the approaching anniversary of our National Independence at Tammany Hall. Would that it were in my power to be present on this great occasion! I should, indeed, esteem it a high privilege. At a period when the National Democratic party of the country are everywhere rallying to defend the Constitution and the Union against the sectional party who would outlaw speech of our sister States from the Confederacy, it does cheer the heart of every patriot to know that the Democracy of the Empire State, in solid and united column, are rushing to the rescue. Acting upon your motto, that "Past grievances are to be buried in oblivion for the future," they must prove invincible. Most gladly would I be with you on this auspicious day, and sincerely do I regret that this is impossible.

With sentiments of high respect,
I remain yours truly,
JAMES BUCHANAN.

To HENRY C. MURPHY and others, Committee, &c.

It is said the Whigs and Democrats of Massachusetts intend to run the Hon. R. C. Winthrop for Governor.

THE BILL OF PEACE.

Judge Douglas has introduced the following bill in Congress for the purpose of settling the difficulties in Kansas. Who can expect to it?

Read it:

"Mr. Douglas, from the committee on Territories, to which was referred the various bills relative to affairs in Kansas, made a voluminous report on the subject. It contains an elaborate argument in favor of the new bill accompanying the report, which provides for the appointment of five Commissioners, to be selected by the President from different sections of the Union to represent fairly all political parties. They shall take a census of all the legal voters in the Territory, and make a fair apportionment of delegates to be elected by each county, to form a constitution and institute a State government. When the apportionment of all be made the Commissioners are to remain in session every day, except Sunday, at the place most convenient for the inhabitants of said Territory to hear all complaints, examine witnesses, and correct all errors in said list of voters, which list shall be previously printed and generally circulated through the Territory, and posted in at least three of the most public places of each election district; and so soon as all the errors have been thus corrected, to cause a correct list of the legal voters to be printed, and copies furnished to each Judge of election, to be put up at the places of voting, and circulated in every county in the Territory before the day of election—no person to be allowed to vote whose name does not appear on the list as a legal voter; the election for delegates to take place on the day of the Presidential election, and the Convention to assemble on the first Monday in December to decide, first, whether it be expedient for Kansas to come into the Union at that time, and if so decided, to proceed to form a Constitution and State government, which shall be of republican form. Kansas then to be admitted under such Constitution on an equal footing with the original States. The bill provides further, that no law shall be enforced in the Territory infringing the liberty of speech, or of the press, or of the right of the people to bear arms, &c. It also provides punishment for illegal voting, or fraud and violence at elections, and authorizes the use of the military for that purpose. The main point is, that the persons designated by the census as the present legal voters of the Territory, shall be all points in dispute at a fair election, without fraud or violence, or any other improper influence. All the white male inhabitants over 21 years of age are to be allowed to vote, if they have resided in the Territory three months previous to the day of election, and no other test shall be required; and no oath to support the Fugitive Slave Law or any other law, nor any other condition whatever."

THE Washington correspondent of the Charleston (S. C.) Standard says:

A member of Congress yesterday bet $10,000 that Mr. Buchanan would carry twelve Northern States—Maine, New Hampshire, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan and California.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

Mr. Eaton—Please announce the name of C. L. VALANDIGHAM, as a candidate for Congress, subject to the decision of the Democratic-Nominating Convention.

Invalid have you tried HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS? If not, read the following:

LANCASTER, April 30, 1856.

Respected Sir—I have for a serious year been afflicted with Dyspepsia, Inactivity of the Liver, and Nervous Debility. My mental powers have been so reduced as to render me quite unfit for the transaction of any kind of business. After consulting many eminent physicians, and using their prescriptions, and a few of the most popular remedies of the day, supposed to be applicable to my case, I always failed to have permanent relief. A friend, with much persuasion, induced me to try a bottle of your celebrated Bitters. I have used one bottle, and this day commenced the second. I can, with cheerfulness, state that it has happily improved me. My appetite and spirits have astonishingly improved, and I begin to feel as though I had grown suddenly ten years younger; and really, I am almost prepared to say that I now consider myself calculated for any business, while, ten days ago, I would as soon have undertaken to square the circle, as to have attempted it.

Yours, respectfully,
A. E. KUFMAN.

BENEVOLENCE.

We do not think a person can evince a more benevolent trait of character than being moved at the distress and suffering of others, and furthermore, anxious to do all in their power to alleviate by every possible means human suffering. In this view of the case, we do not know how the humane and benevolent can do an action more in accordance with their philanthropic views, than by calling the attention of their adopted friends and acquaintances to the fact, that Dr. S. S. Hays, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., has discovered a preparation, which is put up in the form of a pill, that has a specific action for curing Epilepsy, or falling fits, spasms, cramps, and all forms of nervous diseases. Among those who have been permanently cured, we might mention a member of the family of James H. Beadle, Huntsville, Alabama; Mr. P. Sledge, Cabin Point, Surry county, Va., and Mr. W. Ligon, Grenada, Mississippi. We might go on enumerating a number of others, until we had entirely filled up this column of our paper but we think we have said sufficient to satisfy every person that the subject under consideration is one of vital importance to every one. Reader, if you are a well man or woman, and have no need of a remedy, perhaps you know some person who is not equally blessed as yourself, if so, put out this notice and send it to him or her. It will cost you but little trouble, and probably it will make you instrumental in curing some poor, afflicted mortal of that dreadful visitation, Epilepsy, or falling sickness.

Those Pills, besides curing Epilepsy, are a specific for all modifications of nervous disease. Price, 25¢ per box; two boxes for 50¢; twelve boxes for $2.1. Persons enclosing a remittance will have the Pills sent them through the mail, on their receipt. We have given his address above.

ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE OF SCROFULA.

Sparta, Carolina County, Va., March, 1856.

Messrs. Bennett & Beers, Richmond.

Gentlemen.—Your Carter's Spanish Mixture has performed a remarkable cure in the person of a servant man, afflicted with Scrofula in the worst form. So bad had he become, that his eyes were entirely closed, and had been so for more than a year! As a last resort, as everything else had failed, it was resolved to try the said Mixture. We administered it according to directions, and wonderful to say, a perfect cure has been effected. I am satisfied that no medicine equals "Carter's Spanish Mixture" as a purifier of the blood. It is creating quite an excitement here, and sells very rapidly. Send another lot by Rail-road.

Yours truly, D. S. BROADBENT.
